The Keysville Interdenominational Youth Choir

presents Spirit of '76

Sunday, June 29, at 7:00 p. m.
Memorial United Methodist Church
Appomattox, Va.

As millions of Americans begin to celebrate the anniversary of our nation's independence, the Keysville Interdenominational Youth Choir has prepared its contribution to the celebration of our country's birth.

Many themes are woven into the musical. Among them are excerpts from the speeches of famous Americans to Americans who have given their lives for their country, an admission of guilt for the way we have abused it, and, above all the conclusion that we need to adopt the spirit of our 1776 ancestors - love for God, love for country and love for our fellowman.

Instrumentalists for the musical are Lorraine Bailey - piano; Frank Overby, Joe Bass, Danny Overby and Jeff Overby - guitars; Danny Flynn and Ren Morris - drums; Stanley Agee and Randy Claybrook ; trumpets; and Dan Ferguson - trumbone.

Soloists are Larry Agee, Stanley Agee, Faith Clark, Joe Freeland and Joe Russ.

Narration is by Sandra Overby, Tammy Tipton and Randy Duffer.

The musical is under the direction of Mrs. Warren N. Morris and Mrs. Homer G. Smith, Jr.
